❖ EVENTO Popup Canopy Tent

The EVENTO pop up canopy will get your company noticed at its next outdoor event.

Manufactured from aluminum, they are lighter and stronger than its steel counterpart and still comparable in price. They are intended for frequent use.

With height adjustable octagonal legs which lock into position with spring loaded locks, you can adjust the height of the pop up canopy to your liking.

The optional white polyester canopy which suits any application is water resistant. Leave blank for rental units or decorate with logos using screen printing, transfers or digital printing.

Alternatively, a tent can be completely customized using a full color dye sublimation process.

Each printed pop up canopy has a collapsible design which allows for easy assembly. For portability, the promotional tent comes with a black carrying bag for the aluminum frame.

The EVENTO canopy is often used for the following:

- Trade shows
- Markets, fairs and festivals
- Sporting events
- Outdoor concerts and events
